

Important Information Regarding the Application Process:

The application deadline for the next summer semester is November 15, 2019. We're very much looking forward to welcoming your students to the St. Pölten UAS! All relevant information about studying in St. Pölten (e.g. also about accommodation) can be found in our International Student Guide. The academic calendar for the next year can be found here.

For information regarding our study programmes, please visit our website.

We also offer a number of English modules and the European Project Semester.

Please note that the modules are not complete yet and subject to changes until the beginning of the summer semester.
