Practical information
Visa	British and Non-European students must get a visa to study in France. In order to apply for a visa, students shall provide their current passport (valid for the duration of stay) and their acceptance letter. If you live in one of the 44 countries subject to the "Études en France" ("Studies in France") procedure, you must first apply to enroll in a higher education institution through the platform "Études en France". Your visa application will be automatically sent to the "Campus France office" of your home country through the platform. For example, the following countries are all using the "Studies in France" procedure: Argentina, Chile, China, Colombia, Lebanon, Mexico, Morocco, Russia, Senegal, South Korea, Taiwan and the United-States. If you do not live in one of those countries and you need a visa to come and study in France, please contact the French consular authorities in your home country. Some consulates ask for an IELTS or a TOEFL proving a B2 level in English. Please also contact the French consular authorities in your home country. TIPS: Follow this link to see if you need a visa or not: https://france-visas.gouv.fr/web/france-visas/accueil If you get a (VLS-TS, visa long séjour valant de titre de séjour) You have until three months after the day of your arrival in France to validate your long-stay visa: → https://www.campusfrance.org/en/how-to-validate-your-long-stay-visa-visa-long-sejour-upon-your-arrival-in-france Please note that it will cost you 50€
Mandatory insurances	Three insurances are compulsory in France: ✓ Health insurance: *If you are a European student, you will have to provide your European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) *If you are a British or a non-European student, you will have to register online at https://etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr/#/. Signing up via this website before going to France will allow you to apply for

	membership in the French social security system. The French Social Security system will reimburse you for your health care expenses. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qEpy9Xr9UKk In addition, we highly recommend subscribing to a top-up (complementary) health insurance policy in order to ensure optimal reimbursement of healthcare expenses. This would be interesting for reimbursement with dentists, opticians, medical specialists or to cover possible hospital fees. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Housing insurance (compulsory for all students whether you live in a student residence or choose private rental housing): covers all damages that your home may suffer or that you may cause to your neighbors (fire, water damage, natural disaster, etc) ✓ Civil liability insurance (generally included with the home insurance but please double-check): covers potential damage to another person or property
Accommodation	ISIT has partnerships with student residences, particularly ECLA residence (see https://www.ecla.com) which pre-books different types of accommodation for ISIT students. Please, find the list of ISIT partner student residences on the following link: https://www.isitinternational.com/student-life/new-student-information/ and in our practical guide (see link below). Other types of accommodation are also possible: apartment-sharing, intergenerational housing, private-flat rental... But, we highly recommend that students NEVER transfer any amount of money as long as they have not visited the accommodation or signed a lease contract, even for a pre-reservation!
Student Housing Aid (“CAF”)	European students and non-European students with a VLS-TS visa may also be eligible for student housing aid: ➔ https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BqDHFfh2PP0 (Tutorial)
