INSTITUTIONAL INFORMATION

Academy of Economics in Radom allows students to study in most comfortable ways using newest IT technologies. Everything is complemented by comfortable social infrastructure. Academy of Economics in Radom currently is the largest and best equipped teaching base among all non-public universities in the Radom region.

The university organizes meetings for Erasmus students to build common relations and to develop teamwork. We often create events for students to participate in and joint trips. Each such meeting is aimed at integration and exchange of information about each other's countries. The decision to study in Poland is a time to experience our culture and customs.

WHAT TO SEE IN RADOM

Radom is a city located in central Poland, which makes it easy for students to visit other beautiful cities, such as Warsaw, Lublin, Krakow and Wroclaw. The city's infrastructure includes public transportation and rail transportation.

Radom also has new civilian airport, located about 4 km from its center. In addition to flights to the French capital, it will also operate flights to Brussels, Rome, Tirana and Greek Preveza.

The first flights are scheduled for the second half of April 2023.

The main and representative street of the city. A sizable section of Żeromskiego is a pedestrian zone, where numerous government offices, institutions, banks and various types of stores are located.

The ornate facades of bourgeois houses and balconies are mostly made of cast iron. Their decorative balustrades were made with precision and imagination in numerous Radom foundries.

Żeromskiego Street

Cathedral of the Protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Construction of the church began in 1899, construction work continued until 1908. The temple is built in neo-Gothic style. It is a basilica church

Theater of Jan Kochanowski

Operating since 1976, the theater is the only professional theater in Radom, and currently the facility is visited by about 70,000 spectators each year. The content presented here is diverse and appeals to many audience groups.

The main square of the Kazimierz Town district, until the 19th century the center of the medieval city

SEE YOU IN RADOM 😊
