Partner Information Fact Sheet

A.Y. 2026-2027

Institution Overview

The University of Macerata (Università degli Studi di Macerata) is a well-established institution located in the heart of Italy. It offers a wide range of academic programmes and demonstrates a strong commitment to international cooperation and student exchange. The University promotes a dynamic and multicultural environment, built on a long-standing tradition of academic excellence.

International Partnerships

The University of Macerata is actively engaged in global cooperation through an extensive network of international agreements, providing numerous exchange opportunities and collaborative initiatives across a wide range of disciplines.

The University holds over 350 Erasmus+ agreements with European partner institutions, as well as bilateral agreements with universities worldwide, including in Argentina, Brazil, China, Japan, and the United States. These partnerships promote academic mobility and contribute to strengthening international collaboration and intercultural exchange.
