

Erasmus+ Fact Sheet for Partner Universities and Incoming Students

The University of Bonn

The Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms Universität Bonn (University of Bonn) was founded in 1818. With a student body of about 38,000, the university is one of Germany's largest academic institutions and with more than 6,000 foreign students and PhD students from all over the world also one of the most internationally oriented. A wide range of course offerings, an outstanding reputation in teaching and research and a unique location make the University an especially attractive place to study.

Bonn, the former Federal Capital of Germany, is located on the Rhine and is a center for the Rhineland's way of life, art and culture. In 1989 the city celebrated the 2,000th anniversary of its founding as a Roman settlement. Bonn is Germany's UN city with its 21 UN Agencies and hosts approx. 150 international organizations.

Furthermore, the city is also the birthplace of Beethoven, has a beautiful historic town center with a daily open market, numerous museums and many other buildings and events of significance and cultural interest.

Having 35 years of experience in the Erasmus programme, Erasmus students may expect to be supported by the full range of student services including language courses, orientation programme and academic guidance at the University of Bonn. During the semester, the International Office offers an extensive cultural program as well as various other programs to ensure cultural immersion and intercultural experience.

Nomination and Application

General Information

Due to the ongoing technical problems with the EWP system, nominations for student mobility in 2023/24 may be based on the preliminary agreement details which we have agreed upon in autumn 2021, until the digital Inter-Institutional Agreements can be exchanged and signed through the EWP system.

Deadlines

May 1 for 1st semester (winter semester) or the full academic year
November 1 for 2nd semester (summer semester)

Student nomination and application are carried out together at the same time.

Please have your students follow the following 3 registration steps which include your nomination. Please do not send nomination lists to Erasmus Departmental Coordinators or the International Office by e-mail.

Notification about admission

1. Students follow the instructions at our website (→ Application procedure), fill in the online form and create a Mobility-Online account.
2. After completing their registration, students can print a nomination form which needs to be signed by their Erasmus coordinator
3. Students upload their signed nomination form to their Mobility-Online account by the application deadline

The relevant department and/or the International Office will send notifications together with further information within about 6 weeks after the above-mentioned application deadline. Where additional requirements or documents apply, the Erasmus Departmental Coordinators will inform the partner institution.

The International Office will send information to students about accommodation, orientation, language courses etc. mid-June / mid-December.

Language Requirements and German Language Courses

Language requirements

German
on bachelor level

German is the main language of instruction at the University of Bonn, particularly in most undergraduate/bachelor programs. Therefore, a minimum level of B1 in German is required for bachelor students. Details about German language requirements are to be found on our website. If in doubt, please contact the Erasmus Departmental Coordinator.

English
often on master level

However, in graduate/Master courses English is often the language of instruction. Here, a minimum level of English B2 is usually required. For more information on courses taught in English, please contact the Erasmus Departmental Coordinator.

German intensive language course before the semester

Intensive German Course Before Starting the Semester: September 08-30, 2023 / March 8-30, 2024

level A1-B2, 56 class hours, fee for Erasmus students: €200 (regular: €250)

Erasmus students state their interest as part of the application process in Mobility-Online and will receive further information about placement and payment by e-mail

German language courses during the semester

In-Semester German Language Courses:

a) everyday language courses A1.1 to B2.2, 4 hrs. per week equal 4 ECTS, free of charge

b) special topic courses A2 to C1, 2 hrs. per week equal 2 ECTS, free of charge

ECTS-credits for all of these extra-curricular German courses can be included in the Transcript of Records upon agreement with the Erasmus Departmental Coordinator. Students should discuss with their Erasmus Coordinator beforehand whether they accept the German course ECTS-credits for the Learning Agreements.

More information on language courses on our website.

The International Office will inform accepted students about the application procedure for all German courses

German Department

The German Department (Germanistisches Seminar) does not offer any German language courses but teaches German philology and literature. Students who do not study “Germanistik” (German Studies and Comparative Literature) as their main subject are usually not admitted to study “Germanistik” at our university unless this has been agreed upon with the responsible Erasmus Departmental Coordinators.

Digital Learning Agreement Course Information

Digital Learning Agreement Different responsible persons at each department!

The University of Bonn uses the OLA. Students should make sure to insert the correct contact details of the responsible person at the responsible department into the digital learning agreement. They should NOT insert the contact details of the Erasmus Institutional Coordinator (Ms. Gittel-Avehoukpan) or the Incoming Student Advisor at the International Office (Ms. Langenberg).

Courses

Online course catalogue “BASIS” at: <https://basis.uni-bonn.de>

Please note: Students cannot register for courses through “BASIS” before their arrival. Students will usually be registered by their Erasmus Departmental Coordinators.

For all questions concerning courses and study programs, students please contact the corresponding Erasmus Departmental Coordinator.

Special English course offer for exchange students : «Germany in a Global Context»

www.uni-bonn.de/ggc

Grading system

The grading usually comprises five levels (with numerical equivalents; intermediate grades may be given, e.g. “1–“):

Sehr gut (1)	Excellent
Gut (2)	Good
Befriedigend (3)	Satisfactory
Ausreichend (4)	Sufficient
Nicht ausreichend (5)	Non-Sufficient/Fail.

The minimum grade for passing is Ausreichend (4).

Accommodation

Student dormitories at the “Studierendenwerk Bonn”

www.studierendenwerk-bonn.de/en/accommodation/

Students can apply for a room from the Studierendenwerk Bonn during their application process in Mobility-Online.

Monthly rent: between €250- €560 (depending on dormitory and room/apartment)

E-mail: housing@uni-bonn.de or wohnen@studierendenwerk-bonn.de or

Private accommodation

In all dorms, a starter kit called “Dorm Basic Set” with basic necessities is available for purchase for €60. It is equipped with bedlinen, a pillow and duvet, towels, LAN-cable and basic kitchenware.

Please note: The Studierendenwerk Bonn is not part of the University of Bonn and the International Office cannot influence any decisions.

As a room in a dormitory of the Studierendenwerk Bonn cannot be guaranteed, students should search for private accommodation in parallel. More information on living in Bonn and private housing is available here.

Formalities

Passport/ID

Students need a passport or identity card valid for the whole period of their stay.

EU citizens

EU citizens do not need a visa or mobility permission to study in Bonn.

Visa regulations

Students from countries that do not belong to the EU or the EEA might require a visa to enter Germany. They can find further information on our website.

Insurances

Health insurance

For enrolment students need proof of sufficient health insurance which covers their whole study abroad period at the University of Bonn.

a) The European Health Insurance Card (or GHIC for UK students or A/T11 for Turkish students) is equivalent to a statutory German health insurance. Please contact one of the statutory German health insurance companies with the sender number H0001178 to request recognition of your existing insurance and get an insurance number.

b) Private insurance: Students can take out an insurance abroad that covers the European area. Please contact one of the statutory German health insurance companies with the sender number H0001178 to check if your insurance cover is sufficient to be exempted from the statutory German health insurance.

c) Statutory insurance: If no private insurance has been taken out or if there is insufficient cover, students can take out statutory German health insurance, which costs approx. €120 per month. Please contact one of the statutory German health insurance companies with the sender number H0001178 to get insured and request an insurance number.

Please be aware that students who are older than 30 years have to take out a private health insurance.

Liability insurance

We also recommend that students take out a third-party liability insurance to cover any accidental damages caused to other persons or property during their stay.

The social contribution fee of approx. €325, which students have to pay when enrolling, includes an insurance for accidents that might occur on the way from the university to your place of residence or on university grounds.

Finances

Cost of living	On average: min. €850 - €1,000 per month (depending on price for accommodation)
Cost of accommodation	Dormitory: €250–€560 per month (depending on dormitory and room/apartment) Private accommodation: €350–€650 per month
Semester ticket	When enrolling at the University of Bonn, all students need to pay a social contribution fee of about €325 per semester . It includes a semester ticket for all public transportation in and around Bonn. Note: This is NOT a tuition fee. All students have to pay this fee.

Students with disabilities/chronic diseases

Information	www.studierenmithandicap.uni-bonn.de (available in English soon)
First contacts	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Veronika Langenberg, erasmus-incoming@uni-bonn.de• Marion Becker, Advisor for Students with Disabilities and Chronic Diseases, studierenmithandicap@uni-bonn.de
Accommodation	The Studierendenwerk Bonn offers some rooms and apartments for students with special needs. As there is a limited number of such rooms, students are highly advised to get in touch with the International Office (housing@uni-bonn.de) and the Studierendenwerk Bonn (wohnen@studierendenwerk-bonn.de) well in advance so that they can support the application accordingly.
Accessibility	The University of Bonn is not based in one single campus, but spread throughout the city of Bonn. However, similar study areas are usually concentrated in one area . As many institutes are located in older buildings, not all of them are barrier-free. Therefore, students are recommended to get in touch with us before their arrival for further information.
Studying and learning support	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Special conditions and support in the different libraries• Specially equipped room for taking exams, including reading devices for visually handicapped students• Mentoring (on demand) Special conditions for exams (e.g. different form of exam, more time, permission of supporting tools etc.) can be arranged depending on degree of disability and needs.
